

University Support

HELLO English offers three fixed-price university support packages, PUP, English and Research Methods.

As experienced university teachers and researchers, Dr de Reybekill, Ms Finlay and associates can help you prepare for studying - but also advise and assist you with your course or research projects.

We offer three University-level courses:

PUP

Our Pre University Package covers the essentials for university: study skills, quoting references, academic writing and basic statistics.

English

We offer support to undergraduates studying English Language, Literature or Linguistics.

Research Methods

Basic quantitative and qualitative research skills for undergraduate and postgraduate students.

Costs

Our Pre University Package can be booked for 15 hours and costs £440.

English and Research Methods support can be booked in blocks of 10 hours and costs £290.

It is occasionally possible to arrange longer courses. Please contact Neil at HELLO English for more details.
